ISA RC 36 SESSION

(2 sessions)

Title of Session: Nationalism in a Post-National World

Name of Session Convener(s): Lauren Langman
University/Organization: Loyola University of Chicago

Selected papers:

Chair: Martin Prosano (Missouri State University, Springfield)

SESSION I

The Future of Nationalism
Craig Calhoun (Social Science Research Council, New York)

Agency Vs. Structure: Nationalism in a Global Age
Lauren Langman (Loyola University of Chicago)

Feminism and Nationalism in the Middle East
Valentine Moghadam (Purdue University, East Lafayette IN)

Nationalism as (Becoming) a Commodity in the Era of Globalization
William A. Pelz (Elgin College, IL)

SESSION II

Where Both Ends of the Russian Political Spectrum Meet: The Combination of Nationalism, Imperialism and Anti-globalism as Common Ground
Véra Nikolski (College Universitaire Francais de Moscou; Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)
The Militant Islamic ‘Nation’ and Trans/National Identities
Stephen Vertigans (Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen)

The Privatization of Nationalism(s)
Alexander Kiossev and Petya Kabakchieva (Sofia University)

Opening Up to the World and the Fear of Foreignness
Petya Kabakchieva (Sofia University)

Nationalism in Time: Theorizing Transformations of Nationhood
Matthias vom Hau (University of Manchester)