Title of Session: The Politics of Proximity: Mobility/Immobility in Practice

Name of Session Convener(s): Giuseppina Pellegrino
University/Organization: University of Calabria

Selected papers:

SESSION I

“Informational Capital” as a Consequence of Mobility & Proximity by Media
Bruno Sanguanini (University of Verona)

Mobility and the Notion of Attainable Reach
Kjell Engelbrekt (Stockholm University)

Human Costs of Mobility: On the Heterogeneity of Mobile Population in Multinational Companies
Laura Gherardi (Catholic University of Milan)

Discursive Proximities: Distances and Mobilities in an Israeli Commemorative Visitor Book
Chaim Noy (Israel)

Urban Mobility, Accessibility and Social Equity. A Study on Mobility and Social Equity in Barcelona, Bologna, Lyon and Wien
Matteo Colleoni (University of Milan "Bicocca")

Borders and Gateways under Urban Daily Mobility Practices in Santiago de Chile
Paula Jiron (London School of Economics)

Escape Attempts - Mobility and Gravity
Peter Mayer (University of Pannonia)
Commuting and "Mobility Routinization"
Catarina Sales Oliveria (ISCTE, Lisbon)

SESSION II

Mobility, Value Creation and Relational Machines
Carmelo Buscema (University of Calabria)

“Eppur si muove”! The right to Mobility of the “Non-Citizen” between Global Rhetoric and Local Fragmentation
Enrico Gargiulo (University of Naples "Federico II")

Re-establishing Proximity: Negotiations of Identity After Isolation in Jaffna, Sri Lanka
Eva Gerharz (Bielefield University)

Governing the (Im)mobility of Elderly People
Tim Schwanen (Utrecht University)

The Redefinition of Social Action
Cristina Marchetti

Global Cities, Complexity and Infectious Disease
S. Harris Ali and Roger Keil (York University, Toronto)